

Ross is a professional musician whose career has spanned over thirty years. Ross has played in every setting; as a solo pianist, in bands playing funk, rock, blues, latin, jazz, and in Duos, trios, quartets and more . He has performed in prestigious venues worldwide including the Ritz Carlton in Osaka, Sheraton resort hotel Miyasaki, Tokyo Shiba Park Hotel , Japan , Abu Dhabi Sheraton Hotel and including international jazz festivals .

His experience extends to cruise ship contracts including "The World", and the famous Royal Caribbean "Oasis of the Seas" (Jazz Quartet) and "Allure of the Seas" (International Jazz Quartet), which included cruises throughout Europe, The Caribbean, Mediterranean. He was also especially invited to play for the inaugural release of the "Harmony of the Seas" in the UK, Europe and the US, with the "Manny Kellough All Star band" which included playing with New York bass player Curtis Lundy, Ross has recently released "The Removalist" album (2017) recorded in New York with Curtis Lundy on bass, and famous Victor Lewis on drums.

Ross has a long ranging background in music, and has played with many musical luminaries around the world. The trio plays at the highest level, playing with intensity that stirs the soul and engages the audience, playing an eclectic song list, the trio takes the audience on an incredible journey. His band is always first class, first call session musicians who bring their touch of magic to each performance. It is hard to create a trio exactly like this one, although "mission accomplished"

This is a trio not to miss.....!!!!!!
